In Florida, merpeople have performed every day since 1947 — In the Weeki Wachee Springs underwater theatre — They wear dark raw denim during riots — They dye the water so dark that — The public can't see a thing — They can't see merpeople — They can't see no fucking merpeople — The mercommunity copes no more with — The shitty pay and sleeping in bunk beds — They don't freelance and want to be paid well. Merpeople shape — The Weeki Wachee river ecosystem — They've got — The world by the tail — Merpeople shape — The Weeki Wachee river ecosystem — They've got — The world by the tail.
